- ➤ Note 3: AACC GER Arts & Humanities Requirement. COM 111 or 116 is strongly preferred and required for any student pursuing a dual degree with an A.A.S. in Human Services. However, ODU will also accept the following AACC GER Arts & Humanities courses: AFA 214, ART 181, 210, 219, ENG 211, 213, 214, 216, 217, HIS 111, 112, 211, 212, 214, GSS 101, HUM 101, MUS 100, PHL 111, 141, 142, 201, THA 111, or World Language level 111 for ARB, ASL, FRE, GER, ITA, or SPA.

- ➤ Note 5: Upper Division General Education Requirement. Complete minimum of 6 credits in approved courses at the upper division (300/400 level) or a Minor.
- ➤ Note 6: Elective Credits. 2 credits in elective coursework are required to meet the 120-credit minimum for a degree. Elective credits may be met by completion of an ODU Minor, taking general elective courses of one's choice, or through additional transfer credit hours. Students who complete additional coursework in HUS 100, HUS 211, and SOC 111 can also be awarded AACC's A.A.S. Human Services degree. These courses will transfer to ODU's B.S. Human Services degree program as HMSV 341 Introduction to Human Services, HMSV 449 Crisis Intervention, Prevention, and Ethics, and SOC 201S Intro to Sociology.
- ➤ Note 7: Transferability of AACC's HUS courses (102, 115, 130, 140, 200, 217, and 234). Credit hours from the A.A.S. in Addiction Counseling program are used to satisfy the B.S. in Human Services Program as academic electives.
- ➤ Note 8: CSAC or CADC Credentialing. For students pursuing credentialing as a Certified Substance Abuse Counselor (CSAC) or Certified Alcohol and Drug Counselor (CADC) following graduation, HMSV 447 Introduction to Substance Abuse and HMSV 452 Substance Abuse Treatment and Research must be selected as part of the required curriculum.
- ➤ Note 9: Addiction Prevention and Treatment Certificate Opportunity. Students who pursue this certificate will gain the knowledge, skills, and abilities to recognize the signs and symptoms of substance abuse, understand crisis intervention and relapse prevention strategies, develop substance abuse prevention and recovery programs, treat individuals and families affected by addiction, and make ethical decisions as a human services professional. The certificate program consists of six courses within the ODU Human Services program for a total of 18 credit hours. AACC's HUS 216 and HUS 114 courses at AACC will fulfill two of the six course certificate requirements. Students may complete AACC's HUS 100 or ODU's HMSV 341 to fulfill one course requirement, and students will complete HMSV 447, HMSV 449, and HMSV 452 at ODU to satisfy the remaining requirements and be awarded the certificate. This certificate may fulfill the educational hours required to take the National Certified Addiction Counselor Level I (NCAC-I) exam as set by the Virginia Board of Counseling. If you plan to seek credentialing outside of Virginia, please contact your state board to determine how this certificate can meet your state's requirements.
- ➤ Note 10: Internship in Human Services. A one-semester 400-hour internship (HMSV 468 Internship in Human Services) is required after all degree coursework is completed. The internship experience provides the student with an opportunity to gain real hands-on experience in the field, as well as network for future job opportunities. Learning experiences are structured to ensure that the student can apply in the field setting what has been learned through previous didactic class work. Students who successfully complete HUS 217 Fieldwork: Theories of Counseling at AACC with a grade of C or better are eligible to apply for a waiver of 100 internship hours out of the 400 required by ODU. Students who have already completed 5 years of full-time experience in the field of human services can submit a portfolio to be considered for HMSV 468 credit.
